major expectations considered essential in the PYP. These expectations are arranged into six strands: creative exploration and expression, technical incorporation, performance, personal and social development, reflection, evaluation and appreciation and drama in society.

Primary Years Programme Drama scope and sequence Frame their language scope and sequence document around the conceptual understandings outlined in the PYP document, but develop another aspect, such as the learning outcomes, differently. Integrate additional external requirements, for example, indicators, benchmarks and standards, into the PYP scope and sequence document. Schools need to be mindful of practice C1.23 in the IB
