Work is often considered a problem in culture, but according to scriptures about work, God has good intentions about your work and business. Not only is work important to God, but you'll also spend roughly 90,000 hours on the job. During your time in business, you can strive to glorify God in your work (1 Cor. 10:31) or you can wake up close to retirement with the realization that you squandered away so much of your precious time.
