A manual transmission 2011 E90 328i Msport sedan that I just sold a week ago weighed about 3362 pounds and had 230 hp, while the IS300's 215 hp only has to lug around 3255 pounds. That's a power to weight ratio of 0.0684 for the BMW and 0.0661 for the Lexus. And that's still comparing a 2002 to a 2011.

The Lexus IS looks utterly distinctive, and that alone could be enough to tempt drivers away from the usual suspects in the compact executive class. Overall, though, we still think rivals like the Audi A4 and BMW 3 Series and Mercedes-Benz C-Class are better all-rounders and the lack of a plug-in hybrid option will limit its
