3.5 Short story in the world of Magic Thief, a wizard comes from another city to ask the great wizard Connwaer for help with a magical problem they're having. He's rather surprised to come across Conn - not at all the proper wizard he was expecting. I really enjoyed this story. Lots of wry humor, which made me wish there was more of this humor/style in book 4 (which I read before this).

The Magic Thief: A Proper Wizard by Sarah Prineas

"The Magic Thief: LOST" is the second book in the series that centers around street boy turned magical apprentice Connwaer. This book picks up shortly after the first one ends, and deals with Conn's lack of a locus stone, his belief that the magic is a being protecting the city, and the consequences of these two plots.

Lost (Magic Thief, #2) by Sarah Prineas
This is the third book in the Magic Thief series by Prineas. It was an excellent book in this series. The fourth book in this series, Magic Thief: Home, just came out last week. I was unable to find confirmation that there will be a fifth book in the series, but I did find a comment by Prineas saying she does have ideas for a 5th book.
